The editor of the Journal wants to know what the condition of a State that left the Union would be? That is the husiness of the State

Sundry politicians at Washington a sewhere have seized on the name of John t reckinrilge as a candidate for the office of resident. We shall take the liberty to sug gest to Major Breekinridge and his friends hat when a storm is coming, one had bette keep out of dead timber; it's dangerous.

The Washington correspondent of th orth American thinks Douglas has no chane t Charleston. The editor of the Journa iuks so too; so does the editor of the Con ier; so all the Black Republicans say. It i usoling to all these parties to believe so lut what if they are mistaken-ah, what The Democrats are very apt to do just wha heir opponents predict they will not do.

The Black Republicans have compli ents for all the Democratic candidates fo President, except one; for him they hav othing but curses. They show their appre hensions of his strength, whilst they can look at others with complacency. The enemies of longlas South quote the testimony of thes emies of the South as to his weakness be ore the people. It is plain that these wit nesses from the Black Republican camp don' elieve a word they say.

We exchange with a considerable num er of Republican papers, and we have no seen one whose daily effort is not to disparage ouglas. He is weak in his party; his chances or a nomination are hopeless. The paper hat support him exaggerate without bounds Why do these papers take all this interest in the matter? Why dou't they let the Democ If the friends of Douglas exaggerate, let ther exaggerate. Let Douglas be nominated. 1 he is so weak, then he will only be the easie beaten; and they will the more easily win ietory. Why do they compliment others and ree Donglas? They understand what they are about, and e understand them, too. They see the favorite f the Northern Democracy, and know where he battle is to be fought. They hate the Democrat who is strong in the free States caring nothing for one who can carry the South only. They give up the South; and in so do ing lose nothing. But in the North, if the lose thirty-four votes there, all their succes amounts to nothing. The strong candidate is the free States they dread; where the Democ racy must win or lose the race. If the did not know that Donglas was dangerous they would not trouble themselves about him

The llon. Lewis C. Levin died abou one o'clock this morning, of apoplexy. 11 was a native of Charleston, and was in his fifty-second year, having been born on the 10th of November, 1808. Having graduated at Columbia College, South Carolina, he soon after was admitted to the bar, and practiced his profession in Maryland, Louisiana, Ken tucky and l'ennsylvania. In this city he sooi won a high reputation for his impassioned elonence, and having turned his attention to politics, he was elected to Congress in 1811 tives for three successive terms. lle espouse the cause of Native Americanism with grea warmth, and was generally regarded as oue of the founders of that party. One of his ardent emperament necessarily had strong enemies but none questioned the scincerity of his pro ssions, and all conceded the ability with which he advocated his views. No one has greater control over an audience, and at or ime his popularity was such as few political leaders ever enjoy. His friends were always warm and devoted, and there were many to mourn the sail calamity by which his usefulness was impaired, and who will now hear with sincere regret of his untimely decease.

On Monday last, Dorsey and myself inct casually in the llauk of Louisville, some words passed between us, and l, knowing that he was armed with a pistol and sword cane, and was physically much stronger than myself, deounced him and slapped him in the face. To all this he submitted. I was alone and marmed except with a small knife, which is did not draw until he had first drawn the sword from his cane. I saw the butt of a pistol, and vited him to draw and defend himself. this he did not respond. He passed me on the street on the same afternoon after I had slap ed and denounced him; and on that day und be next I was on the streets of Louisville, and could have been found or had at any time i wanted. On Wednesday morning I drove ou in my buggy to some land belonging to my wife The only weapons I had about me were a smal kuife and a pistol, two charges of which had just been discharged at a target, when liorsey accompanied by his brother. Look to Your Interests. The people are aware that D. O'Hare, No 427 Main street, is the oldest, largest and mos experienced manufacturer of trunks and simi lar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the rare opportunities afforded by Mr. O'llare. To country and city merchants he offers peculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line te cannot be equaled. Whoever wants to travel, whether with a small carpet-bag or mammoth trunk, need go no further than to th Great Western Trunk Factory of Mr. O'Hare His manufactory is a credit to Louisville, an should meet with extensive patronago. Hundreds of workmen are employed, and housand of dollars weekly disbursed. As a matter of thome pride, and to subserve economy, par chasers will consult their best interests in par chasing of Mr. O'Hare.

Lovers of fine cigars will be glad learn that the Garibaldi's for sale by John D' Urso, next door to the Louisville Ilotel. This is a really delicious brand, finely flavored, and in all respects a most desirable article. The price of this capital eigar is very moderate and smokers will certainly be glad if they lay by a stock of them for future use. Mr. D'Urse has a full stock of choice family groceries, teacoffees, spices, &c., and we commend him t the patronage of our citizens.

The Special Pacific Railroad Committee

the House held their first meeting for luss uses to day, and adopted resolutions declar-ing that a Pacific Railroad is necessary and expedient, and that the destruction of such a road should be undertaken by corporations and not by Government. Also, that it is ex-pedient and necessary that the government should aid the undertaking both with money and land. Mr. Fenton, of N. Y., objected to denating the puldic lands, and was in favor of appropriating money. With this exception the Committee was harmonious on the passage of the resolutious. A majority of the committee favored the central route. The committee meet regain on Salar der.

The maxims of the wisest men are t reserve the body in perfect health, not to wait for the development of disease. "Be wise and pure, and the plagues of a poisoned at system, is McLean's Strengthening Cordia and Blood Purifier. Try it, and you will the convinced. See advertisement. ml dawlm.

FINE FURNITURE.-Wharton & Bennett keep onstantly on hand a large stock of desirable parlor, office and chamber furniture, of all kinds and patterns which they sell at their wareroom at the lowest prices. Their store is Nos. 502 and 504 Market street, between Second and Third.

Good.-A lunatic once informed a physician who was classifying cases of insanity, that he lost his wits by watching a politician, whose course was so crooked that it turned his brain lf, on the contrary, he had been watching the effects of Heimstreet's Hair Restorative, he would have saved his wits and learned a curious triumph of Art over Nature. See adve-fels48w3m.

LOOK AT THE AUTHORITY.

KOKOMO, IND., Aug. 16, 1859

DR ROBACK—Dear Sir: It is due to you and the public, more especially the afflicted, to say that I have given your invaluable Scandinavian Blood Purifier a fair trial in a number of cases of diseases arising from unhealthy blood, in all of which it has exceeded my expectations, and comes fully up to its recommendations. I do, therefore, with pleasure, recommend it to all the afflicted whose disease indicates a remedy of that description.

Yours, truly,
